Itinerary Highlights

The Nut Chair Lift

What better way to take in the breathtaking views of the historical and picturesque coastal village of Stanley than from a leisurely chairlift ride to the top of the intriguing local attraction known as The Nut! This fascinating geological formation stands at 152 meters and towers above Stanley providing stunning 360-degree views of the township, Bass Strait, and the Rocky Cape National Park.

Tasmania Seafood Adventure

Hosted by real, local, fishermen - on the waters of Tasmania. From our signature "Deep to Dish" adventure - where you'll harvest and prepare fresh wild caught seafood like oysters, abalone and crayfish straight from the ocean - to the atmospheric Sea to Sky night cruise and our world-first Southern Reef Submersion 'diver reality' dive, every journey is immersive, hands-on and unlike anything else.

Bonorong Wildlife Sanctuary

A renowned wildlife conservation park located in Brighton, Tasmania, about 30 minutes from Hobart. It is dedicated to the rescue, rehabilitation, and protection of native Australian wildlife, particularly Tasmania's unique species such as the Tasmanian devil, wombats, echidnas, quolls, and kangaroos.

Winery Visit

Experience Tasmania's renowned beverage scene with visits to Josef Chromy Wines, an award-winning winery known for its premium cool-climate wines and picturesque vineyard estate near Launceston, and Hellyers Road Distillery, one of Australia's leading single malt whisky producers, offering distillery tours and tastings of its award-winning whiskies.
