Itinerary Highlights

Rottneest Island

Home to the happiest animals on earth - quokkas – Rottneest Island (Wadjemup) is a holiday haven of pristine beaches, aquamarine bays, bike tracks and walking trails.

Once you've crossed the 19-kilometre channel between Perth and the island, get about on foot, with a hired bicycle or e-bike, use the shuttle, or board the hop on-hop off bus, which loops around the 11 kilometre-long island.

Lancelin Sand Dune

For a taste of adventure and an injection of adrenalin, head to the Lancelin sand dunes north of Perth. Here, you can go sand boarding down massive 45 degree angle dunes, which are the biggest in Western Australia.

From the peaks you'll be rewarded with a panoramic outlook over Lancelin, surrounding farmland, sand hills and coastline.

Hutt Lagoon (Pink Lakes)

Sometimes bright bubblegum pink, sometimes lilac, and occasionally even red, the waters of Hutt Lagoon can be an extraordinary sight on the drive between Port Gregory and Kalbarri. Head out before sunset and watch the colours transform.

Visit between July and September to see the countryside blanketed in wildflowers.

The Pinnacles

Set near one of Australia's most fascinating areas – the Pinnacles Desert where thousands of huge limestone pillars rise from the shifting yellow sands – the Pinnacles Desert Discovery Centre takes you on a new dimension on your journey through Nambung National Park which runs beside the Turquoise Coast.

The Busselton Jetty

Busselton Jetty is a must-see when in Busselton, and at 1.841 kilometres long, it's the longest tourist jetty in the southern hemisphere and second longest in the world! Stroll or take a ride on the solar-powered Jetty Train over the Indian Ocean to the Underwater Observatory, one of only six in the world!
